

SUKRA

Travel & Tourism Services INC

7 days - Classic Tour

Day By Day Itinerary

Day 1:

Arrival to Tripoli Airport where Our Guide will Meet you with Board written your name in, whom will assist for getting Visa upon arrival, transfer to the hotel, afternoon city sightseeing Tour visit The Marcus Aurelius Arch, Modern Medina overnight at hotel.

Day 2:

Visit Aljamahirya Museum is one of Essential attraction for sightseeing tour to Libya; the museum shows monuments of civilizations that inhabited Libya by Germans, Roman, Greek, Phoenician & Islamic. Our Local guide will accompany you & to Enjoy listening to the interesting & a brief explanation about the ancient civilization.

Our Second point of the city sightseeing tour is visiting the Karamanly house Which Is one of the most important historical houses in the street of Arbaa Arsaat. It was built in the 2nd half of the 18th century A.D. During the reign of Ali Pasha Al Karamanly from 1754 to 1793. It was know as Al Hareem house because the famous governor of Tripoli Usef Pasha Karamanly (1798-1832) was living in this house with his big family. The Third point of our tour Drive to Sabratha (62 Km.) Having Lunch in a tourist Restaurant, drive to the site to begin touring in the ancient Roman city & it's museum with & a brief explanation of our Local Guide. return to Tripoli, overnight at hotel.

Day 3:

Excursion to Leptis-Magna (120 Km.); The most preserved Roman site, the city was originally a Phoenician port, settled ivory and precious metals brought it great wealth, which was supplement by the rich agricultural land surrounding it. Roman legions ousted the Carthaginians following the third Punic War, after which the city flourished until the Vandals did their namesake thing in 455 AC,. The first thing you'll encounter is the Severan Arch, which was erected in honor of Emperor Septimus Severus' visit to his hometown in 203 AD. Not far off are the marble and granite paneled Hadrianic Baths, the largest outside Rome. Keep exploring and you'll come across the partially covered nymphaeum, a shrine dedicated to the worship of nymphs; a pair of massive forums, similar in design and grandiosity to the imperial forum in Rome; the extraordinarily detailed basilica and theater. Having Lunch, Continue our tour to the west along the seashore about 700 m, the circus and amphitheatre, where chariot races and similar spectacles were held for the locals' amusement. Drive to Villa Sillin visit the wonderful mosaic, return to Tripoli, overnight at hotel.

Day 4:

Driverive to Ghadammes via Qaser Al-haj & Nalut, overnight at hotel.

Day 5:

Touring in Ghdammes, The oasis town of Ghadhames locates along with the Algeria and Tunisian borders. Visit the Famous desert architecture, Ghadhames earned an sobriquet'Pearl of the Desert', we will visit; The old city is a labyrinth, lit only by occasional overhead skylights and open squares – a style unique to this part of the Sahara. It's also small enough to be entirely covered on foot, which is just what you should do when you arrive (bring a torch). Near the western entrance to the old town, Dan Magrumah House is an old merchant's house with its original furnishings and decorations kept intact. Sedija Square is surrounded by some superb mud-brick buildings. Having Lunch in Traditional House,

A (15 km) drive outside of Ghadhames brings you to some decidedly non-spectacular Roman ruins on the 'Haunted Hill,' Ras al-Ghoul (yes, the English word 'ghoul' comes directly from the Arabic). Ruins aside, the hill's worth visiting for its vistas over the desert, and while you're there, there's a lake nearby that's popular for swimming and picnics, Overnight at hotel.

Day 6:

Return to Tripoli (640 Km) via Kabaw & Gharyan, overnight at hotel

Day 7:

In the Morning touring in the old city souk, transfer to the airport, Departure.

Prices include Half-board basis & the following services:

1. Visa Authorization.
2. Meeting & leave-taking from the & to the Airport.
3. Accommodation as will be selected from the price table.
4. Transportation by Air-conditioned Mini-Buses Coaches.
5. Guide speaking Multi-Languages.
6. Entrance Fees to the Tourist sites.

Does not include:

1. Photo camera fees at the sites.
2. Snacks.
3. Tips.